

MAY DAY LABOR COMITTEES Numerous Disagreements in New England Between Employers and Employees.

LITTLE DISTURBANCE IN CONNECTICUT

Aside from the Dispute Over Wages for Trolley- Building Trades in Providence, Fall River and Other Cities May Be Crippled Today by Declared Strike of 2,000 Men for Increase of Wages.

New Haven, Conn., May 1.—Aside from the dispute over the wage question between the Connecticut company, the trolley building companies for the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, and the labor circles of the state on the opening of the industrial year, in Hartford four of the largest building contractors have declared for an open shop in the building trades, but there the situation is peculiar. In a building which is being erected, the contractors have refused to allow outside workmen, even when members of similar unions, to be employed on the job, with them until they have joined a local council of the trades.

CONNECTICUT TROLLEYMEN GIVEN REMISSION TO STRIKE. Conditions Are Serious—Crisis Expected in Forty-eight Hours.

New Haven, May 1.—The Journal-Courier in the morning will say that Dennis Fitzgerald, member of the Trolleyman's union, executive board, stated last night that permission had been given the men employed by the Connecticut company, holding company for the trolley roads of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, to go out on a strike.

IN NEW ENGLAND. Nearly 10,000 Working People at Odds With Employers.

Boston, May 1.—May day, generally regarded as the first day in the industrial year, finds in New England numerous disagreements between employers and employees. In 1910, 4,200 Union Trolleyman Ready to Strike. The 4,200 union trolleyman employed in Springfield, Worcester and in other cities in the Connecticut valley, are in Connecticut on street railway lines operated by the New England Investment and Security company, a trolley holding company, which has been in New Haven and Hartford Railroad, awaiting tonight, only the right of their national strike before calling a strike in furtherance of their demands for an increase in wages. The situation is in a state of tension, and it is expected that a strike will be called in New England, a number of street railway lines in the past few months having voluntarily granted increases in wages ranging from five to ten per cent.

THE BUILDING TRADES. The building trades in Providence, Pawtucket, Newport and Auburn in Rhode Island and in Fall River, Mass., are in a state of tension, and it is expected that a strike will be called in New England, a number of street railway lines in the past few months having voluntarily granted increases in wages ranging from five to ten per cent.

FAKE MATRIMONIAL SCHEME WORKED BY WEALTHY FARMER. Who Had His Daughter as Assistant—Both Under Arrest.

Jefferson, Va., May 1.—J. A. Campbell, a wealthy farmer of Morgan county, and his daughter, Miss Addie, were held to the federal grand jury here today under $10,000 bonds to answer a charge of conducting a fraudulent matrimonial scheme.

Search of Mrs. Addison's rooms by police inspectors tonight brought more than four hundred letters to light from men in all parts of the United States, Canada and Mexico. Several of the letters contained statements of marriage proposals ranging from $5 to $50 for a wedding outfit.

MRS. RUTH BRYAN LEAVITT Will Be Married Tomorrow to Lieut. Reginald A. Owen.

Lincoln, Neb., May 1.—Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt reached Lincoln today after an absence of several months spent in Germany. She was preceded by Lieut. Reginald A. Owen, Royal Engineers, to whom she will be married Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bryan. Members of the Bryan family are now at Fairview except William J. Bryan, Jr., who was unable to leave his home at Tucson, Arizona. The wedding Tuesday will be a quiet affair, with guests limited to the family and less than a dozen intimate friends.

OBITUARY. Maj.-Gen. J. P. S. Gobin.

Lebanon, Pa., May 1.—Maj.-Gen. J. P. S. Gobin, Pennsylvania national guard, prominent in Philadelphia affairs, died at his home here today of pneumonia.

General Gobin was a lawyer by profession. He entered the civil war as a lieutenant and was promoted to major. He was a member of the National Guard of the United States and was elected commander in chief in 1897.

Passover Ends. Sunday was the final one of the eight days of the Hebrew Passover feast and a holy day, so that the stores on West Side which are usually open on Sunday evening, were quite generally closed.

Cabled Paragraphs.

Kiev, Russia, May 1.—Friday's report of the Russian government's intention to prevent the recurrence of massacres of Jews from Kiev are false.

Munich, May 1.—The American art exhibition was formally opened yesterday. Prince Regent Luitpold viewed the pictures in company with American Ambassador to Germany, David Jayne Hill and Mr. Reisinger.

Tokio, May 1.—Official announcement is made of the marriage engagement of Princess Nobuko, Fumi-Nomiyama, the third surviving daughter of the emperor and empress, and Prince Asaka. The nuptials will be solemnized on May 2. The princess was born on August 7, 1881.

PLEA IN HOUSE FOR JEWS. Resolution Asking President to Protest to Russia is Introduced.

Washington, May 1.—A resolution asking the president to use his friendly offices to prevent the recurrence of massacres of the Jews in Russia, was introduced in the House Saturday by Representative Francis Burton Harrison of New York.

The resolution recited that there is a general feeling in the United States of Russia of fanaticism and persecution of the Jewish race. It declares that it is the sense of the house that "persecutions of Jews in Russia and restrictions upon their natural rights to life, liberty and happiness are shocking to the sense of justice and humanity of mankind and are to be severely condemned by the American people."

COMPLAINT WITH THE REQUEST OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE UNITED STATES HAS CABLED TO THE UNITED STATES CONSUL AT ODESSA, RUSSIA, TO ASCERTAIN THE TRUTH OF THE PUBLISHED REPORT THAT THERE HAD BEEN A MASSACRE OF JEWS THERE, AND THAT OTHERS HAD BEEN DRIVEN OUT OF THE PROVINCE.

KITE FLYING EXPENSIVE. Government Has to Pay $200 for Injuring a Horse.

Washington, May 1.—It is proverbially known that the United States government does almost anything, but not one suspected that it cost it as much as $200 to injure a horse. The amusement of flying a kite until yesterday, Saturday afternoon the house passed a bill reimbursing a man in Virginia the cost of his horse, which was injured by a kite flying over it.

IN THE PROBATE COURT. Necessary to Pity Open Safe to Get Documents in Estate of Noble A. Ladd.

In the probate court on Saturday Judge Ayling was presented with a safe from the estate of Noble A. Ladd of New York, which contained documents of value. It was about 18 inches square and required the use of an iron bar before it could be opened. A will was found inside, but it was not signed, and another, partly written, was found. Mr. Ladd's estate will amount to many thousands of dollars, it is expected.

THIRTY-NINTH ANNIVERSARY. Celebrated by Workingmen's Circle, Sunday Evening.

In Swatburg hall on Sunday evening, Workingmen's circle, No. 128, had a crowded house for the celebration of the thirty-ninth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. The speaker for the evening was John M. Ladd, of Worcester.

DEATH OF REAR ADMIRAL PHILIP HICHBORN, RETIRED. One of the Best Known Figures in the American Navy for Many Years.

Washington, May 1.—Rear Admiral Philip Hicbhorn, U. S. N., retired, died at his home in the city of Washington, D. C., at the age of 71. He had been confined to his home for some time, being confined to the house practically all of the time, by arterial disease, near the end of his life.

FUNERALS. Maurice F. Garvey.

The funeral of Maurice Francis Garvey was held at his late home, No. 223 Talman street, on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The service was held at St. Mary's church, a requiem mass being celebrated by Rev. J. Smith. Beautiful flowers on high were sent by Mrs. M. J. Slaney. There were many guests, including Rev. J. Smith, Rev. J. Casey, Rev. J. McGuire, Rev. J. Robinson and Rev. J. Smith.

Four Persons Injured at Ossining in Automobile Accident.

Ossining, N. Y., May 1.—Four persons were injured here early this morning when the automobile of Burton Robinson, a cousin of the late Mrs. Herbert Hicbhorn, got out of control on a sharp turn, and starting to climb a hillside, turned turtle. Mrs. Robinson, who was driving, was killed.

Prince Tsai Tao in New York. New York, May 1.—His Imperial Highness, Prince Tsai Tao, of China, a brother of the prince regent and uncle of the emperor, arrived here today from Washington at the head of an extensive retinue, for the last days of his stay here.

Two More Enumerators Finish. Seven of the census enumerators have finished their work, the last two being Joseph E. O'Sullivan and Thomas Kelly. Mr. Kelly had 1,000 on his list, and there will be others who will go over with the 2,000 mark, and some will reach 3,000.

The International White Slave Conference in Paris adopted agreements for the furtherance of an organized campaign against photographic publications used in the illicit traffic.

Naugatuck Doctor Seerely Injured. The Milk Famine Not Materializing.

Naugatuck, Conn., May 1.—When the steering gear of an automobile in which Dr. Walter A. Riley of this place, his wife, Miss Gertrude McGraw, both of Bridgeport, were riding, broke here late today, the machine swerved from the highway and plunged down a twenty-foot embankment into the bed of Hop Brook and turned turtle. Dr. Riley and Miss McGraw were severely injured, and Miss Riley, who jumped, escaped with slight bruising.

CONTRACTORS DRAWING ON SURPLUS. The representatives of the producers explained this tonight by stating that the contractors had put into circulation milk which had been collected previously and pasteurized or otherwise treated. The effect will not be felt, the producers say, until the limited surplus now on hand begins to get exhausted.

SENSATIONAL RAIDS ON ALLEGED POOL ROOMS. Another Step in Determined War Against New York Gambling.

New York, May 1.—In three raids on alleged poolrooms yesterday afternoon by police inspectors acting under the direction of the district attorney, nineteen men were arrested. More than a hundred men were driven from two of the places and a truckload of racing charts, telephone books, and other articles were taken. The raids will be followed by a general war on gambling in the city.

CONTRACTORS DRAWING ON SURPLUS. The representatives of the producers explained this tonight by stating that the contractors had put into circulation milk which had been collected previously and pasteurized or otherwise treated. The effect will not be felt, the producers say, until the limited surplus now on hand begins to get exhausted.

DEMANDS FORTS AT PANAMA. WANTS DEFENSE READY. When Canal is Opened—Message from President Taft.

Washington, May 1.—In a message, accompanied by a detailed report from the war department, President Taft on Saturday sent to congress information regarding the necessity for beginning the fortification of the Panama canal. The report stated that the canal is to be opened in 1914, and that the United States must be ready to defend it.

AMERICAN SCULPTOR DEAD. JOHN QUINCY ADAMS. Died Sunday Morning. New York in His 80th Year.

New York, May 1.—John Quincy Adams, the great American statesman and sculptor, died this morning at his residence in Manhattan avenue, New York, in his eightieth year. He had been in poor health for some time.

WHILE RUNNING AT HIGH SPEED, MACHINE SKIDDED, TIRES BURST. Elsie Gunkle of Hartford Had Leg Broken in Auto Accident.

New Britain, Conn., May 1.—An automobile driven by John J. Coffey, a tinner for the Columbia Automobile company, skidded on the road near Pratt station, today, and Miss Elsie Gunkle of 551 New Britain avenue, Hartford, was killed. She was thrown from the car and her leg was broken.

RHODE ISLAND'S INDEPENDENCE DAY NEXT WEDNESDAY. Will Be Officially Celebrated on the Above Date.

Providence, R. I., May 1.—Rhode Island's Independence day will be officially celebrated on Wednesday next, May 3. The celebration will be held at the state house, and will include a parade and other festivities.

FLIES OVER BRITISH FLEET. Cecil Grace in Wright Aeroplane Startles Naval Officers at Sheerness.

London, May 1.—The fleet of British warships anchored off Sheerness had a novel experience yesterday when an aeroplane from the Aero club, piloted by Cecil Grace, flew over the fleet. The plane was seen by the naval officers, and they were startled.

PHILADELPHIA MOTOR MEN AND CONDUCTORS FIGHT. John McGuirk, Union Conductor, Shot and Instantly Killed.

Philadelphia, May 1.—John McGuirk, aged 36 years, of this city, a union conductor, was shot and instantly killed early today during a fight between him and a group of men who were conducting a strike against the city's motor men.

HIGHER SALARIES AT YALE. University's Income Sufficient to Justify an Increase, Says Dr. Hadley.

New Haven, May 1.—President Hadley of Yale university will bring before the board of trustees a plan for the increase of professors' salaries. He says the university's income is sufficient to justify an increase.

NEW SYSTEM OF ELECTIVES AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY. Cambridge, Mass., May 1.—A systematic education based on the principle of knowing a little of everything and something well, and at the same time to make the student plan the full college curriculum seriously and plan it as a whole, are the intent embodied in the new system of electives at Harvard university, according to the annual report made by President A. Lawrence Lowell and given out tonight.

ACCEPTS CALL TO HARVARD PULPIT. Hartford, Conn., May 1.—It was announced today that Rev. Charles F. Carter, pastor of the Hancock Congregational church, Lexington, Mass., had accepted the call to the pulpit of the Park church of this city.

LOCOMOTIVE PLUNGED DOWN EMBANKMENT. Bridgeport, Conn., May 1.—Engineer Edward Donagan, New Haven, was severely injured by a steam locomotive which plunged down an embankment today. The locomotive was carrying a load of coal.

DEATH OF MR. RICHARD A. MCGURDY. Mr. McGurdy, fifty-two years of age, died at his home here today. He was a member of the local lodge of the Grand Lodge of the State of Connecticut.

PRESIDENT'S LONG WALKERS Barring Accidents He Will Rest from His Labors this Afternoon.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The president will leave for his journey to Upper Manhattan to Mayor Gaynor's Office—Will Briefly Dress Crowd There—Admirers Will Present Purse.

DUE AT NEW YORK CITY HALL 4

Leaves Yonkers this Morning at Daybreak on Last of his Journey—Official Escort from Upper Manhattan to Mayor Gaynor's Office—Will Briefly Dress Crowd There—Admirers Will Present Purse.

Yonkers, N. Y., May 1.—Edward Payson Weston, whose untiring legs have carried him triumphantly across the continent, finishing his remarkable walk of 3,483 miles at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. He will leave Yonkers at dawn on the last stage of his journey and at 8.30 a. m. is due to reach Kingsbridge, in the upper part of Manhattan, where he will be met by a party to accompany him down Broadway to the City Hall.

KEPT HIS BED ALL DAY SUNDAY. Weston does not walk Sundays, and today was no exception after his arduous reception he received on his arrival here last night, he retired and remained in bed practically all of today. His meals were served as he reclined, and he received callers garbed in a brilliant and colorful array of costumes.

AMERICAN SCULPTOR DEAD. JOHN QUINCY ADAMS. Died Sunday Morning. New York in His 80th Year.

New York, May 1.—John Quincy Adams, the great American statesman and sculptor, died this morning at his residence in Manhattan avenue, New York, in his eightieth year. He had been in poor health for some time.

WHILE RUNNING AT HIGH SPEED, MACHINE SKIDDED, TIRES BURST. Elsie Gunkle of Hartford Had Leg Broken in Auto Accident.

New Britain, Conn., May 1.—An automobile driven by John J. Coffey, a tinner for the Columbia Automobile company, skidded on the road near Pratt station, today, and Miss Elsie Gunkle of 551 New Britain avenue, Hartford, was killed. She was thrown from the car and her leg was broken.

RHODE ISLAND'S INDEPENDENCE DAY NEXT WEDNESDAY. Will Be Officially Celebrated on the Above Date.

Providence, R. I., May 1.—Rhode Island's Independence day will be officially celebrated on Wednesday next, May 3. The celebration will be held at the state house, and will include a parade and other festivities.

FLIES OVER BRITISH FLEET. Cecil Grace in Wright Aeroplane Startles Naval Officers at Sheerness.

London, May 1.—The fleet of British warships anchored off Sheerness had a novel experience yesterday when an aeroplane from the Aero club, piloted by Cecil Grace, flew over the fleet. The plane was seen by the naval officers, and they were startled.

PHILADELPHIA MOTOR MEN AND CONDUCTORS FIGHT. John McGuirk, Union Conductor, Shot and Instantly Killed.

Philadelphia, May 1.—John McGuirk, aged 36 years, of this city, a union conductor, was shot and instantly killed early today during a fight between him and a group of men who were conducting a strike against the city's motor men.

HIGHER SALARIES AT YALE. University's Income Sufficient to Justify an Increase, Says Dr. Hadley.

New Haven, May 1.—President Hadley of Yale university will bring before the board of trustees a plan for the increase of professors' salaries. He says the university's income is sufficient to justify an increase.

NEW SYSTEM OF ELECTIVES AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY. Cambridge, Mass., May 1.—A systematic education based on the principle of knowing a little of everything and something well, and at the same time to make the student plan the full college curriculum seriously and plan it as a whole, are the intent embodied in the new system of electives at Harvard university, according to the annual report made by President A. Lawrence Lowell and given out tonight.

ACCEPTS CALL TO HARVARD PULPIT. Hartford, Conn., May 1.—It was announced today that Rev. Charles F. Carter, pastor of the Hancock Congregational church, Lexington, Mass., had accepted the call to the pulpit of the Park church of this city.

LOCOMOTIVE PLUNGED DOWN EMBANKMENT. Bridgeport, Conn., May 1.—Engineer Edward Donagan, New Haven, was severely injured by a steam locomotive which plunged down an embankment today. The locomotive was carrying a load of coal.

DEATH OF MR. RICHARD A. MCGURDY. Mr. McGurdy, fifty-two years of age, died at his home here today. He was a member of the local lodge of the Grand Lodge of the State of Connecticut.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS. At Gibraltar, May 1. Bertha, from New York. At Southampton, May 1. New York, from New York.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS. At Gibraltar, May 1. Bertha, from New York. At Southampton, May 1. New York, from New York.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS. At Gibraltar, May 1. Bertha, from New York. At Southampton, May 1. New York, from New York.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS. At Gibraltar, May 1. Bertha, from New York. At Southampton, May 1. New York, from New York.